Grow your physics collection by 120 000 articles

Institute of Physics journals are read in over 140 countries by scientists who rely on their high-quality coverage of developments in the physical sciences.

The IOP Journal Archive is a comprehensive digital collection of all the work published by the Institute between 1874 and 1995. You can grow your institution's physics collection by over 120 000 articles by adding the IOP Journal Archive to your digital library. This adds up to over 700 volume years of journals.

Prize-winning authors

The IOP Journal Archive includes some of the very best work from internationally renowned authors. The first journal published by the Institute in 1874 was the Proceedings of the Physical Society. In its first year of publication alone, the journal contained articles by J A Fleming, Frederick Guthrie, William Crookes, Oliver Lodge and G Carey-Foster. The combined work included in the archive gives any student or researcher in the physical sciences a solid foundation of knowledge on which to base their future research.

The complete list of authors who have published in IOP journals since 1874 runs into the 1000's.

Some of the most well known contributors from this list are:

Lord Rayleigh (Physics, 1904) †
 Ernest Rutherford (Chemistry, 1908)
 W H Bragg (Physics, 1915)
 Charles Barkla (Physics, 1917)
 Niels Bohr (Physics, 1922)
 A H Compton (Physics, 1927)
 Sir James Chadwick (Physics, 1935)
 P Debye (Chemistry, 1936)

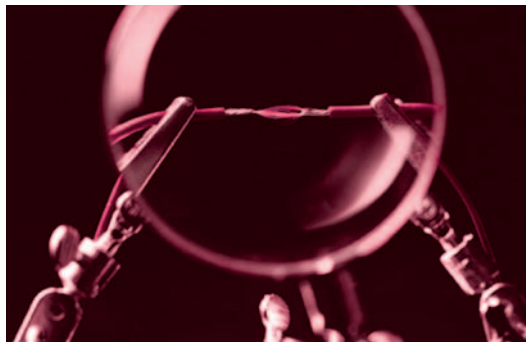

Sir Edward Appleton (Physics, 1947)
 Lord Blackett (Physics, 1948)
 Max Born (Physics, 1954)
 R Mossbauer (Physics, 1961)
 D Gabor (Physics, 1971)
 Abdus Salam (Physics, 1979)
 Alex Muller (Physics, 1987)
 G Charpak (Physics, 1992)

Bert Brockhouse (Physics, 1994)
 H Kroto (Chemistry, 1996)
 G 't Hooft (Physics, 1999)
 Herbert Kroemer (Physics, 2000)
 Alexei Abrikosov (Physics, 2003)
 Anthony J Leggett (Physics, 2003)
 Vitaly Ginzburg (Physics, 2003)

† All dates in this list refer to the year the author won the Nobel Prize.

Subject coverage

There is something in the IOP Journal Archive for everyone working in the physical sciences. Whether researchers at your institution are interested in plasma physics to condensed matter through to medical physics or nanotechnology, the archive gives the researcher a context in which to understand some of the most pivotal discoveries. As Newton is famously quoted 'If I have seen further it is by standing on the shoulders of giants', so every institution serious about breaking new ground in physics will find articles in the archive that will have an impact on their work.

What's included in the archive

The archive includes the complete electronic backfiles of IOP journals. This includes the entire Journal of Physics Series and extends back to the very first issue of the Proceedings of the Physical Society.

The archive contains fully searchable PDFs, with linked references. High resolution scanning has ensured that the text, data and tables of every article are easy to read.

In 2006, the archive covers all content published between 1874 and 1995. Content from the most recent ten years continues to be included as part of your current subscription.

A complete list of titles included in the archive is listed overleaf.

Adding the archive to your collection

To make the IOP Journal Archive available at your institution you can choose between owning the archive permanently or taking an annual subscription. Your regional representative will be happy to advise you on which is the best option for your institution or on any other aspect of the archive.

To find out who your local representative is, please visit our website at www.iop.org/EJ/enquiries.

Permanent purchase option

The archive is available to buy for a one-time fee of £29,750 (plus VAT)* in 2006. When you buy the archive you will add over 700 volume years of scientific research to your permanent digital holdings. You can either load content locally or have permanent rights to view the data through the IOP web server. Local loading enables you to fully integrate the archive into databases held in your institution so that the archive is truly yours. Once you have purchased the 1874–1995 archive, you can buy an annual update for each year added to the archive after 1995.

Customers interested in this option can choose to pay in up to five instalments. If you would like to discuss purchasing the archive please contact your IOP Regional Representative for more information.

Annual subscription option

The archive is also available as an annual subscription. In 2006 we added over 6000 articles, including the complete archive for Metrologia, bringing the total number of articles in the archive to over 120 000. The Physica Scripta archive will also be added for 2006. Existing IOP customers can subscribe for only £706 (plus VAT)* in 2006.

Your subscription includes full-text access to all the journals included in the archive via the IOP Electronics Journals service. Please ask your agent to add the archive to your order or contact custserv@iop.org for an invoice to be sent to you.

For more information on any aspect of the IOP Journal Archive, please contact your IOP regional representative. You can see a full list of representatives at www.iop.org/EJ/enquiries.

* All EU subscribers, with the exception of the UK, are exempt from Value Added Tax (VAT) if they provide their VAT/TVA/Mwst, etc. number when placing an order. EU subscribers outside the UK not providing their VAT/TVA/Mwst, etc. number will be subject to VAT at the prevailing UK rate.
